

Golf for a day...

With sand hills and the coastal hinterland providing the perfect natural conditions for golf courses, world famous architects have delighted in the opportunity to work with mother nature to create wonderful examples of links, resort and traditional courses.

Morning – Golf – Suggestions:

Moonah Links – A challenging round in stunning surroundings that was originally designed to host The Australian Open. Features two 72 par courses as well as the Australian Golf museum and the Hall of Fame.

Or

Rosebud Country Club – An integral part of 'The Cups' region since 1962, the 36 hole Rosebud Country Club provides a challenge for golfers of all levels.

Or

The Dunes Golf Links – Regarded as the closest example of the classic links of Ireland and Scotland. This 72 par course is set in gentle sand dunes for a challenging yet picturesque golfing experience.

Or

The Flinders Golf Club – Perched high on the cliff top with spectacular views of Bass Strait from all 18 holes, this challenging Par 69 course is full of surprises and intrigue.

Lunch:

Ten Minutes by Tractor – Chef Stuart Bell provides an extra dimension for customers to further extend the wine tasting experience with a wide range of superb dishes to match. The perfect 19th hole destination.

Stillwater at Crittenden – Overlooking the lake and nestled beside 25 year old Estate vines, the menu reflects the best of local, seasonal produce. If you want an additional challenge from golf, grab the bocce balls and have a friendly game.

Afternoon - Peninsula Hot Springs – Feel the hot springs revitalise your exercise weary limbs. Enjoy one of the many spa treatments available from massages to wraps, take a Turkish steam bath, or simply lie back in the natural thermal waters in the bath house.

Need a decider? – Some of the Mornington Peninsula golf courses offer twilight golf. Take the challenge into the early evening but it may be hard to concentrate on the game with the glorious sunsets over the bay or ocean.
